Educators, Public Service Advocates to Continue 48-Day March For California's Future:
*Atwater, Livingston, Turlock, Modesto;
Modesto Rally on Wednesday*

A diverse group of Californians, including a San Diego community college professor, a Los Angeles probation officer, a Watsonville teacher, a Marina del Rey substitute teacher and a retired Los Angeles teacher will continue their 365-mile Bakersfield to Sacramento trek. Local teachers, students and community members will join the marchers on Monday, April 5, at Donnelly Park in Turlock to protest further cuts. On Wednesday, April 7, the marchers will join Modesto supporters at Graceada Park for a rally. The marchers are making an extraordinary personal commitment and sacrifice to protest cuts to public education, public health and public safety, and to draw attention to the need to reclaim California's promise.
